

Nancy Rick Jones

Objective:

Architectural assessment and analysis of building systems with an emphasis on problem solving.

Employment History:

Project Manager 03/95 - Present

Experience: Provide a wide range of architectural services to construction defect and personal injury litigation. I observe and document site conditions. Attend and analyze testing procedures as well as directing crews for investigative testing. Prepare reports and presentations of the data collected and analyzed. Allocate responsibility when requested. Attend presentations and mediations working with plaintiff, defense and/or subcontractor representatives.

Core Consulting Group, Inc., San Diego, CA

April 2011 – November 2015

Supervisor: Tom Cook, 760-419-1319, may be contacted.

Lombard Consulting Services, San Diego, CA

November 2007 – March 2011

Hardisty, San Diego, CA

2005 – 2007

West Coast Property Consultants, San Diego, CA

2004 – 2005

NRJ Architecture, San Diego, CA

2001 – 2004

KPAA, San Diego, CA

1999 – 2001

Perry and Perry Architects, Inc., Alpine, CA

1997 – 1999

Building Analysts, San Diego, CA

1995 – 1997

Education:

University of California, Berkeley – December 1986

Bachelor of Arts, Architecture

California Western School of Law – December 1994

Juris Doctor